

Exhibit A: MONITORING INDICATORS THAT MET EARLY INTERVENTION PROGRAM STANDARDS

Exhibit A

Federal Early Intervention Priority Area	Report Statement	Indicators that Met Monitoring Criteria
Child Find	Based on review of policies and practices, interviews conducted with personnel, review of individual child records, and/or review of other documentation, it was determined that the enhanced provider has maintained compliance, to the extent indicated in the next column, with New York State Early Intervention Program regulations in regard to administrative activities related to child find.	1 of 1 indicator assessed in this cluster met the standard.
General Supervision	Based on review of policies and practices, interviews conducted with personnel, review of individual child records, and/or review of other documentation, it was determined that the enhanced provider has maintained compliance, to the extent indicated in the next column, with New York State Early Intervention Program regulations in regard to activities related to general supervision and oversight.	9 of 13 indicators assessed in this cluster met the standard.
Services in Natural Environments	Based on review of policies and practices, interviews conducted with personnel, review of individual child records, and/or review of other documentation, it was determined that the enhanced provider has maintained compliance, to the extent indicated in the next column, with New York State Early Intervention Program regulations in regard to administrative activities related to services in natural environments.	2 of 2 indicators assessed in this cluster met the standard.
Transition	Based on review of policies and practices, interviews conducted with personnel, review of individual child records, and/or review of other documentation, it was determined that the enhanced provider has maintained compliance, to the extent indicated in the next column, with New York State Early Intervention Program regulations in regard to administrative activities related to transition.	0 of 0 indicators assessed in this cluster met the standard.