Description: The New York State Department of Health Office of Minority Health, Health Disparities Prevention (NYSDOH, OMH-HDP) announces the availability of funds to support the Minority Male Wellness Screening Initiative (MMWSI). Funding is intended to provide services to reduce disparities in vaccination rates for COVID-19 by addressing concerns about the vaccine safety, efficacy, and reducing barriers to accessing the vaccine among minority men or people who identify as male in New York State designated minority areas.

The goal of the MMWSI is to reach racial and ethnic minority males or individuals who identify as male, with trusted, reliable information and services to increase demand for and access to vaccinations and health screening. For the purposes of this solicitation, "minority males" are defined as men who are American Indian/Alaska Native, Asian American, Black/African American, Latino/Hispanic, and Native Hawaiian/Other Pacific Islander.

Applicants should discuss their ability to design and implement effective programs that can serve minority males or individuals who identify as males using relevant cultural, linguistics, age, gender, developmentally appropriate interventions, and strategies that demonstrate their ability to maintain linkages with organizations in their catchment area performing similar services.

Applicants must meet each of the following minimum requirements:

1. Must be a not-for-profit, 501c (3) health organization, non-for-profit community-based organization or other not-for-profit organization or academic institution, county health department, or tribal organization located in New York State

2. Must have a minimum of three (3) years of experience working with vulnerable populations and/or minority male populations
3. Must have a minimum of three (3) years of experience in oversight of administrative, fiscal and programmatic aspects of government, foundation or other grant-makers in health contracts, including timely and accurate submission of fiscal and program reports
4. Must be located within and/or provides services to the target population within one of the designated §240 Minority Areas
5. Must be eligible to do business with New York State

For full opportunity, please see the solicitation under the Documents tab.
