Introduction and Address Label Consumer and Provider Material Order Form

The AIDS Institute is pleased to offer a variety of educational materials on HIV, sexually transmitted diseases (STDs) and viral hepatitis for consumers and health and human providers. The AIDS Institute strives to ensure that educational materials address important topics, are culturally relevant, available in multiple languages and employ principles of health literacy. All consumer education materials were developed with input from consumers in the form of focus groups, review by the AIDS Institute's Consumer Advisory Committee or other methods of engaging the specific target population for the specific product. Materials are available in a variety of formats as indicated on the order form. Some materials are conveniently available in PDF format for you to print and copy at your own leisure.

All materials are available free of charge. Orders for bulk quantities may be placed using this Order Form. You are encouraged to download and copy materials instead of ordering printed copies whenever possible.

How to Use the Order Form: Please fill out the form located on the next page to send a request for printed materials. The rest of the form should be used as a catalog with pub numbers and quantities of materials being listed on the following page (Page 4).

Where to send your order form:

Order by Email:

Step 1: List title, pub number, and quantity of materials requested on the Department of Health Order Form as well as name, address, and contact information. Orders will only be processed if this sheet is filled in. The rest of this form should only be used as a catalog for referencing publication numbers of each material.

Step 2: Save this electronic document on your computer.

Step 3: Attach the completed form to an email and send it to: OGS.SM.GDC@OGS.NY.GOV

Order by Mail:

Send a completed order form to:

New York State Department of Health Distribution Center PO Box 343

Guilderland, NY 12084

PEP 4 PHARMACY

Effective March 14, 2017, the New York State Board of Regents has amended scope of practice regulations to allow licensed pharmacists who are acting under a non-patient specific standing order from a licensed physician or nurse practitioner to dispense 7 days of HIV post-exposure prophylaxis (PEP) medication to individuals who present with a recent exposure to HIV. PEP is a highly effective biomedical intervention for preventing HIV infection, but it must be initiated as soon as possible following a potential exposure. Community pharmacists are trusted individuals who are in an excellent position to facilitate early initiation of PEP. Licensed pharmacists who dispense the initial 7 days of medication will coordinate a referral to a health care provider for a full evaluation of the exposure, HIV testing and to provide the individual with a prescription for the remaining days of the 28-day PEP medication regimen.
