Next Steps

• The Committees would like to invite entities who have been working on integrating primary and behavioral health care as well as those who are addressing social determinants of health in their primary care services to share their experiences.

• A second joint meeting will be held on September 23, 2016, in New York City.

• Please RSVP to karen.madden@health.ny.gov if interested.

• Based on the presentations at the September 23, 2016, meeting, the Committees will identify potential recommendations for the Council to make to the Department on ways to facilitate the integration of primary and behavioral health care services and the integration of social determinants into primary care.
