COMMUNITY SUPPORT (RESIDENTS, FAMILIES AND CNAs) FOR THE PROJECT

To be eligible for funding under the On-Time initiative, applicant nursing homes should describe below the following:

- How did you ensure that residents, families and CNAs are aware of the initiative? Possible ways of doing this include meetings with Resident Councils and Family Councils, informal conversations with residents and families, newsletters, meetings with direct care staff, meetings with union representatives if direct care staff are unionized, etc.
- How did you solicit their support for submitting an application?
- Do they support the initiative?
- How will you ensure that residents, families and staff are kept informed of progress on the project over time?

The Administrator should sign this form and, if applicable, the President of the Resident Council and the President of the Family Council should also sign it. Use additional pages if necessary. Append this form to the end of your application for funds.
