Inside this issue:

- New York State Medicaid Expansion of Coverage for Colorectal Cancer Screening
- Fluoride Varnish Application Expansion for Dental Providers
- Other policies and procedures

Policy and Billing

Additional reference documents for provider billing needs. The page may be found from the Medicaid Update newsletter for the month of May 2021.

Fluoride Varnish

Mainstream MMC Plans, as well as HIV (Human Immunodeficiency Virus) (HIV) and Traumatic Brain Injury (TBI) (e.g., RE087001) Eligible, and RE648100-Recipient Exception code of RE648100. Each member is able or has a caregiver who is able to apply fluoride varnish to the prepared tooth surface after receiving training in the professional real-time monitoring of glucose. influenza A (H1N1). The point of care test result of

Colorectal Cancer Screening

NYS Medicaid providers should notify all their adult patients about their risk for colorectal cancer and discuss screening test options with them.

American Rescue Plan

Nearly 120,000 enrollees with income below 138% of the Federal Poverty Level (FPL) are now eligible for enhanced tax credits. For questions about billing and performing MEVS transactions:

Questions and Additional Information:

Please call the eMedNY Call Center at (800) 343-9000.

Colorectal Cancer Screening

Colorectal cancer screening rates have increased by 7% following the implementation of the NYS Medicaid Colonoscopy Program, Revised.

Effective July 1, 2021

Higher income individuals enrolled outside of Medicaid may also be eligible for enhanced tax credits. Nearly 120,000 enrollees with income below 138% of the Federal Poverty Level (FPL) are now eligible for enhanced tax credits. New federal financial assistance is now available to higher income individuals.

NYS Medicaid providers should notify all their adult patients about their risk for colorectal cancer and discuss screening test options with them.

 Nearly 120,000 enrollees with income below 138% of the Federal Poverty Level (FPL) are now eligible for enhanced tax credits.

Higher income individuals enrolled outside of Medicaid may also be eligible for enhanced tax credits. Nearly 120,000 enrollees with income below 138% of the Federal Poverty Level (FPL) are now eligible for enhanced tax credits. New federal financial assistance is now available to higher income individuals.

New federal financial assistance is now available to higher income individuals.